

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: barb@powerofthepen.org, 330-704-1436

DISTRICT CREATIVE WRITING TOURNAMENT RETURNS TO IN-PERSON FORMAT FEBRUARY 4 AT TIFFIN MIDDLE SCHOOL

Approximately 150 students will participate in the competition

NORTH CANTON, OH — January 24, 2023 — The first round of Northwest Region 7th- and 8th-grade creative writing tournaments organized by North Canton educational nonprofit Power of the Pen will be held on Saturday, February 4, with a district tournament hosted by Tiffin Middle School. The tournament is sponsored by the Tiffin Middle School PTO.

The district tournament is returning to an in-person format for the first time since spring 2020. District and regional tournaments had been moved online for the past two seasons due to the pandemic.

Approximately 150 students from 16 area schools will compete in the Tiffin tournament. The top students from the district tournament will be invited to the regional tournament on March 11, hosted by Lourdes University.

Power of the Pen, one of Ohio's largest educational enhancement programs, seeks to positively impact the state's middle schoolers by helping young people find and develop their own unique creative voice.

"In Power of the Pen, middle school students have a platform to share their own stories, build confidence in their writing, and develop leadership abilities," says Executive Director Barb Tschantz. "These crucial life skills not only lead to success in college and a wide range of careers, but also will enable these young writers to help their communities thrive."

Throughout the state, qualifying writers from 18 district tournaments (usually the top 50 percent) advance to the nine regional events. At least 20 percent of students participating in the regional tournament move on to the state tournament. Competitions consist of three timed, extemporaneous rounds of creative writing tasks per grade level, each in response to an open-ended prompt. Judges evaluate the students' work to identify the winners who will be recognized in an awards ceremony.

By the time the tournaments begin, these young authors have spent months polishing their creative writing skills under the guidance of a Power of the Pen coach, and the competition is their chance to shine.

The Northwest Region of Power of the Pen includes Allen, Auglaize, Defiance, Fulton, Hardin, Hancock, Henry, Lucas, Mercer, Ottawa, Paulding, Putnam, Sandusky, Seneca, Shelby, Williams, Wood, Wyandot, and Van Wert Counties.

Power of the Pen is Ohio's original interscholastic creative writing program for middle schools. 7th- and 8th-grade students in Ohio compete in a series of district, regional and state competitions by writing creative responses using provided prompts. The 501(c)(3) organization was founded in 1986 by the late Lorraine B. Merrill and has since become one of the state's largest educational enhancement programs. Nearly 3,000 students participate in tournaments each year, while in-class supporting materials are provided for nearly 300 middle schools in Ohio. For more information, visit powerofthepen.org.

###